

84th Birthday Celebrated

Clyde Broadbent

The family of Clyde and Ethel Broadbent spent Sunday with them having delicious turkey dinner and celebrating Clyde's eighty-fourth birthday.

Clyde was born in Provo on Nov. 14, 1907 but has lived his life in Heber City. He has been active all his life, serving his church and community. Clyde, having a good speaking voice and a lot of wit, has been called on to speak to many, many public gatherings, such as church, funerals, and master of ceremony for all occasions.

His family and friends wish to say "Happy birthday."

*Clyde Broadbent
was Linotyper for
"wave" for his Dad
Chas N. Broadbent.
Clyde was good speller
too.
Clyde started to
help about 1906*